Dear John:

May we have the benefit of your advice as to whether the Fair Labor Standards Amendments of 1974 (P.L. 93-259), as they extend coverage of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 to Federal employment, are going to do violence to the Agency's mandatory 60-year old retirement policy. Attached, for your perusal, is the appropriate Federal Personnel Manual Letter, addressing itself to this matter, as well as a proposed Headquarters Notice recommended for issuance by the Office of Personnel.
